

ÚSTAV FILOSOFIE
A RELIGIONISTIKY
Filozofická fakulta
Univerzita Karlova

international workshop

Institute of Philosophy and Religious Studies
Jana Palacha nám. 2
11638, Praha 1
2nd floor, room 225

Perspectives on Cognition in the Late Middle Ages

May 22nd-23rd

Daniel Heider
Andrew LaZella
André Martin
Michele Meroni
Nicoletta Nativo
Chiara Paladini
José Felipe Silva
Anna Tropa

The workshop is sponsored by the project
“Intentionality and Person in Medieval Philosophy and Phenomenology” (GAČR
21-08256S)

Contact: anna.tropa@ff.cuni.cz

International Workshop

May 22nd-23rd

Institute of Philosophy and Religious Studies

Jana Palacha nám. 2

11638, Praha 1

2nd floor, room 225

Perspectives on Cognition in the Late Middle Ages

May 22

14:00-14:15: Anna Tropia, welcome

14:15–15:15: Michele Meroni, Plus quam specie videtur differre. Limits of animal cognition and teleology of brain ventricles in Albert the Great

Coffee Break

15:30-16:30: Nicoletta Nativo, De necessitate: New Lights on a Forbidden Text of Siger of Brabant

Coffee Break

16:45-17:45: José Felipe Silva, Varieties of Intentionalities

May 23

9:30-10:30: Andrew LaZella, More than Rational, Less Than Real: Two Nominalist Responses to Skepticism

Coffee Break

10:45-11:45: Daniel Heider, Pain in Second Scholasticism. Francisco Suárez, John Poinsot, Bartolomeo Mastri and Bonaventura Belluto

Lunch Break

14:00-15:00: Chiara Paladini, Language and Reality in Johannes Vogler (1610-1676)

Coffee Break

15:15-16:15: André Martin, Peter Auriol's Peculiar Use of Averroes in his Psychology