

Workshop

“Ancient Greek Concepts of Mixtures”

Venue: Faculty of Arts, Charles University,
nám. Jana Palacha 1/2
Prague 1 room 225

Programme:

Friday 23/6/2023

- 9:30-10:45 Sylva Fischerová, “Mixtures and humours in the Corpus Hippocraticum”
- 11:00-12:15 Elisaveta Shcherbakova, “Pneuma, Embryogenesis, and Cosmogony: Differentiation of the Spermatic Mixture in the Hippocratic On the Nature of the Child”
- 14:00-15:15 Hynek Bartoš, “Plato and His Medical Predecessors on Mixed Constitutions”
- 15:30-16:45 Karel Thein, “Soul and Mixtures: Some Remarks on a Platonic Puzzle”
- 17:00-18:15 Vojtěch Linka, “Bittersweet Condition of Human Beings: Mixtures of Pleasures and Pains in Plato (and Aristotle) and Their Relation to the ‘Hippocratic’ Medicine”

Saturday 24/6/2023

- 9:30-10:45 Matyáš Havrda, “Why the atomists are wrong and Hippocrates is right: Galen's arguments about the elements”
- 11:00-12:15 Claudia Mirrione, “Mixture, humours and homoeomerous parts in Galen: what comes first?”
- 14:00-15:15 Robert Vinkesteyn, “The reception of Galen’s QAM by some Neoplatonists”
- 15:30-16:45 Gweltaz Guyomarc’h, “Alexander vs. the Stoics on Mixture: the encounter of two ontologies”

Organizers: Hynek Bartoš (hynek.bartos@centrum.cz)
Vojtěch Linka (vojtech.p.linka@gmail.com)

This workshop is sponsored by the Czech Science Foundation (project no. 22-11418S)